

LOOKS A LOT LIKE ME

From 2009's "What This Country Needs"

The headline in the paper said it all – but the picture wasn't clear
Then my boys started calling – saying maybe I should disappear
I'm not sure what I did – but I've really done it this time
They're saying that I'm wanted – I'm armed and I'm out of my mind
I just got out of bed – so tell me just how could this be They're looking for someone – who looks a lot like me

There's a lot of crazy rumors and reasons that I shouldn't hang around
So I'll borrow a car and keep driving 'til this all settles down
I might head down to Austin – Somewhere that they've never heard my name
They don't have any clues so they're looking for someone to blame
I'm an innocent man – now I can't even walk down the street
'cuz they're looking for someone – who looks a lot like me

(Solo)

Now I'm down at Las Manitas laying low in the Texican sun
They made me an outlaw and outlaws do best on the run
There's a lot of people talking – like they all saw what went down
Maybe somebody could tell me – 'cuz I wasn't anywhere around
I'm a lover not a fighter – that's why it's hard to believe That they're looking for someone – who looks a lot like me
